

Sept. 25, 2019

Mechanicsburg Resident Honored as Leader in Pa. Accounting Association

PHILADELPHIA – The Pennsylvania Institute of Certified Public Accountants (PICPA) recognizes Benjamin A. Paulding, CPA, with a 2019 Young Leader Award. He received this distinction for demonstrated leadership skills that will propel his success in a profession committed to protecting the public interest.

Paulding, of Mechanicsburg, Pa., is a senior accountant with McKonly & Asbury in Camp Hill, Pa. He is a member of the PICPA Construction Industry Committee.

PICPA's Young Leader Awards program recognizes members under the age of 40 who demonstrate a commitment to the CPA profession through active PICPA or community volunteer leadership. This year's group was honored Sept. 19 at PICPA's annual Leadership Conference in Harrisburg, Pa. To view a full list of recipients, visit www.picpa.org/youngleaders.

###

To learn more, contact Mylin Batipps Jr., member engagement administrator, at (267) 675-6255 or mbatipps@picpa.org.

The Pennsylvania Institute of Certified Public Accountants (PICPA) is a premier statewide association of more than 22,000 members working in public accounting, industry, government, and education. Founded in 1897, the PICPA is the second-oldest state CPA organization in the United States. To learn more about the PICPA and find resources, visit www.picpa.org.