

CONSTRUCTION ABC KEYSTONE WARS

INTERACTIVE CAREER EXPLORATION

We're building interest in the trades with tomorrow's workforce.

Construction Wars ABC Keystone's interactive career exploration event for middle school students. Over the course of three days, our student attendees will build a wooden bench, fabricate a sheet metal tool box, build a plumbing project and test the connections, learn about and use tools, wire light bulbs and learn about CPR. They will wear donated hardhats, safety vest, earplugs and protective eyewear and learn about the importance of safety in construction.

ABC Keystone is hoping to secure sponsorships to support the event. Can we count on your help? Below are some ways you can sponsor this educational program.

SPONSORSHIP	COST	VALUE PROPOSITION
Presenting Sponsor (1)	$3,000	Presenting sponsor will address the students/ teachers and parents to start the day; they will have a large banner in the main gathering room and small banners throughout. Signage present during lunch and throughout event; recognition and table at apprenticeship graduation in March; recognition in press releases and social media coverage. The presenting sponsor is made available to any media outlets that attend. Option to provide a takeaway.
Structural Sponsor (3)	$1,500	Structural sponsor will have small banners throughout the event. Signage present during lunch and throughout event; recognition in press releases and social media coverage. Option to provide a takeaway.
